

Esteemed counsel Mudd,

As per our conversation, I have been assigned the case of reference and my contact information is included below.

Please kindly provide us with copy of the executed summonses propounded on defendants Anaís Rodríguez Vega and Damaris Miranda Maisonave.

As soon as received, we will file our appearance and request for an enlargement of time to plead.

Regards,

Lcdo. Rafael B. Fernández Castañer

Hello counsel Mudd,

Even though she presented her resignation, the same becomes effective on December 31. Therefore, you may serve personal process upon her at her work until then.

Subject: Re: USDC-PR case 24-1462, request for summonses executed

Hello again counsel Mudd,

Confirming our 2nd conversation today, we have received the copy of the executed summonses upon defendants Anaís Rodríguez Vega and Damaris Miranda Maisonave. As per the complaint, they are both sued in their personal capacity only. However, upon review of the executed summonses provided, we have notice that the process server failed to serve personally either of the named defendants, as is required by state law and the federal rules of civil procedure. Until such time, the District Court cannot acquire personal jurisdiction over the named defendants.

For this reason, we will not be making our appearance until such time as the deficiencies in the service of process upon both named defendants are corrected, that is, until they are both personally served. Please take note of the above and kindly proceed accordingly.

Regards,

Hello counsel Mudd,

For your information in the case of reference, after doing additional inquiries, we have confirmed that only defendant Anaís Rodríguez Vega's service of process was deficient.

Defendant Damaris Miranda Maisonave was correctly served.

Therefore, the only corrective action required as to the service of process concerns defendant Anaís Rodríguez Vega.

Please take note of the above information.
